Is this familiar?

You wrote an article.

You sent it to a journal for review.

It was rejected.

You are discouraged.

It has been sitting in the drawer for many long months...

But you still believe the topic is important,
the content relevant,
and you want it to be published!

What do you do?

Call Your Publishing Coach and see how we can help you in your writing efforts.

Let us help you get in your name in print.

Your Publishing Coach is more than just developmental editing and review of a potential manuscript. We work with you through the entire writing, submission and revision process. Writing is hard work and you deserve to be successful. We know editors, we know journals, and we know what it takes to go from manuscript to published article.

The Path to Publication

With your rejected or first draft of a manuscript in hand, Your Publishing Coach will:

- Identify 3-5 potential journals that might be interested in your paper;
- Query editors on your behalf;
- Revise the manuscript according to the guidelines of an identified, interested journal...this includes updating the literature review, if needed;
- Submit the manuscript, over your signature and on your letterhead;
- Depending on the outcome of the review, Your Publishing Coach will work with you to revise and resubmit as needed.
- And when your paper is accepted, we provide the champagne celebration!

We work with you every step of the way

With more than 60 published professional articles, book chapters, and books to our credit, the staff at Maine Desk knows why manuscripts get rejected. We will work with you so that you do not make the same mistakes.

We charge one flat fee of $400*... no hidden charges, no hourly rates...whether your manuscript is accepted immediately or needs several revisions, our fee covers the work that needs to be done to get your name in print.

*The fine print:

- We reserve the right not to accept manuscripts that are scientifically flawed or otherwise unpublishable. All manuscripts are accepted for editorial services pending our initial review for suitability.
- For manuscripts not provided on disk, we charge a $50 re-keying fee.
